

Dear Jennifer:

I am writing to let you know what a fabulous job you did in taking care of Jacob and Sammy when we were visiting Newport for my brother-in-law's wedding the weekend of May 13th and 14th. You were such a wonderful person to deal with throughout the entire process of making the babysitting arrangements, meeting the kids upon our arrival and then watching them for both Friday and Saturday evenings.

When exploring our options for finding a babysitter, my husband and I had great trepidation about leaving our boys with someone that we did not know. At home in New York City, we are extremely cautious about who watches our boys, and the idea of coming to an unfamiliar town for the weekend and leaving them behind while we attended the various wedding festivities was difficult to imagine.

However, back when we spoke for the first time, I knew right then and there that you would be the best choice for watching our little boys. You are such a warm and caring woman, as well as responsible, reliable and trustworthy. In a nutshell, you are a consummate professional in the business of babysitting. Jacob and Sammy loved you from the moment they met you, which is not a small feat when dealing with the affection of a 5 and 2 year-old. Your enthusiasm and genuine interest in having fun with the boys made them feel comfortable with you before we left that first night, and they in turn were able to trust that all would be well with you until Mommy and Daddy returned.

I thank you so very much for helping to make our weekend away a carefree and enjoyable one. If you ever plan to be in the New York City area, please do not hesitate to give us a call. The boys would love to get the chance to see you again.

Fondly,
Barbra Kogan
